

Sociological Survey on Municipal Waste Handling in Czech Republic

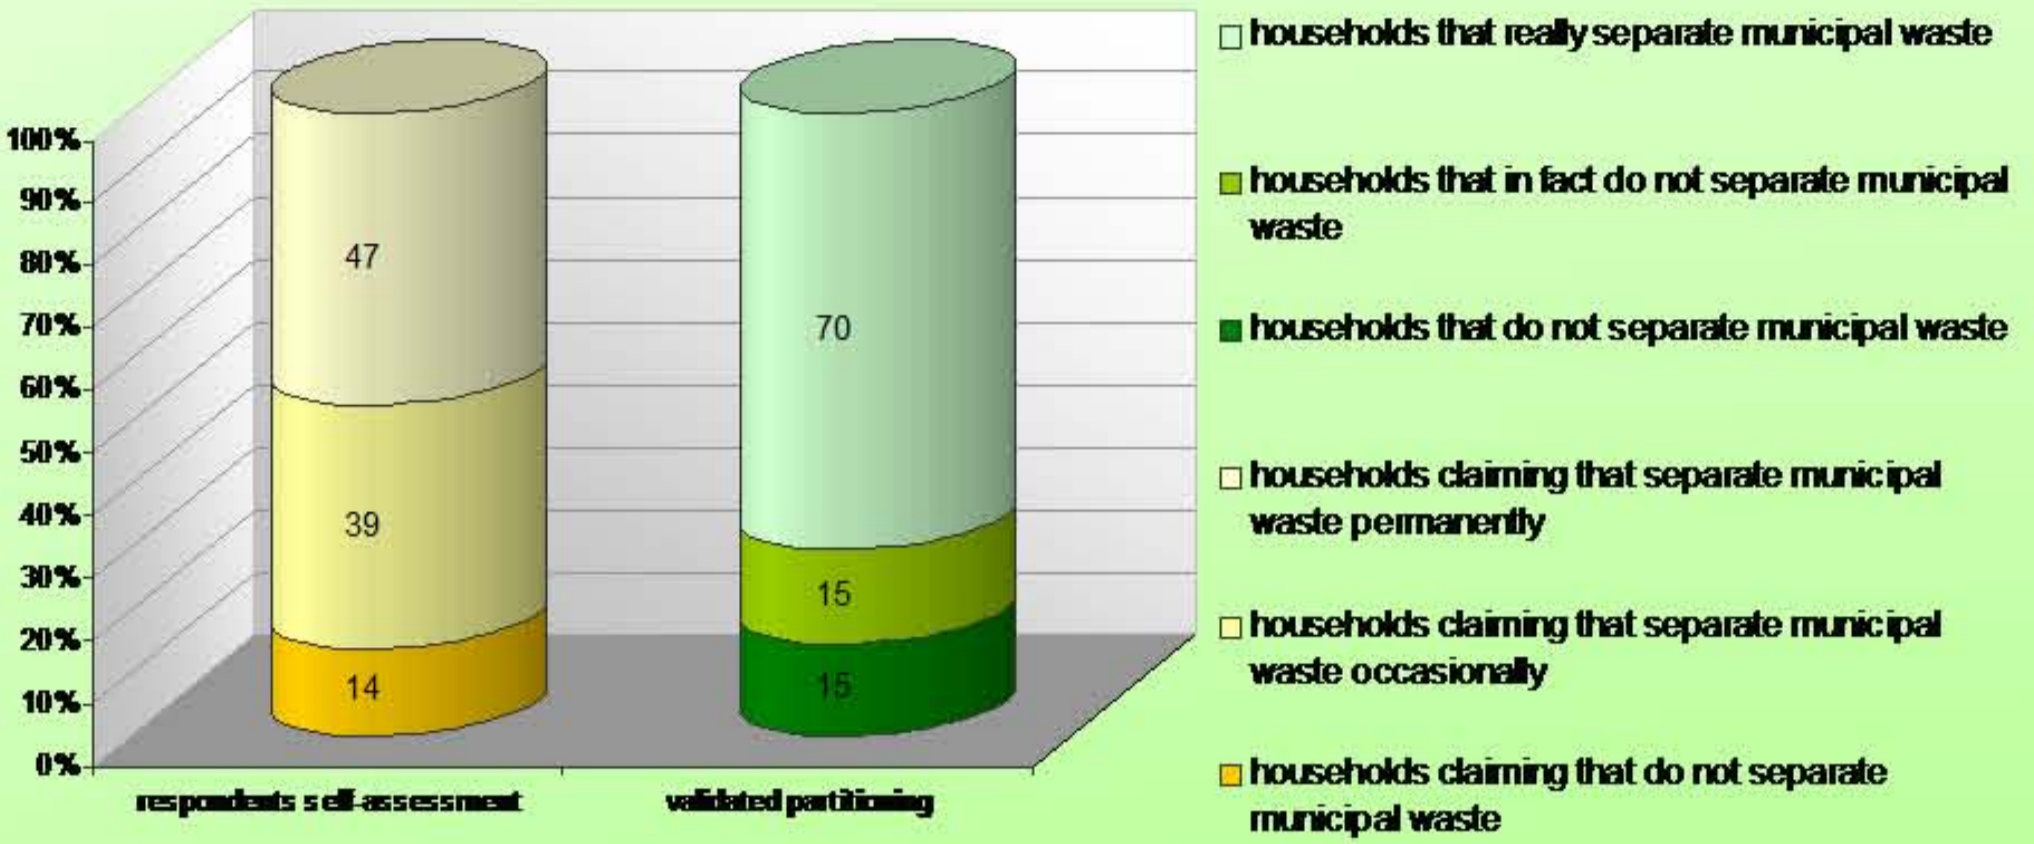

Methodology of the survey:

- Quota technique used for respondents selection from the whole Czech Republic
- 899 respondents in age from 18 to 74 years evaluated
- A face-to-face interview (approx. 48 min) of the questioner with the respondent

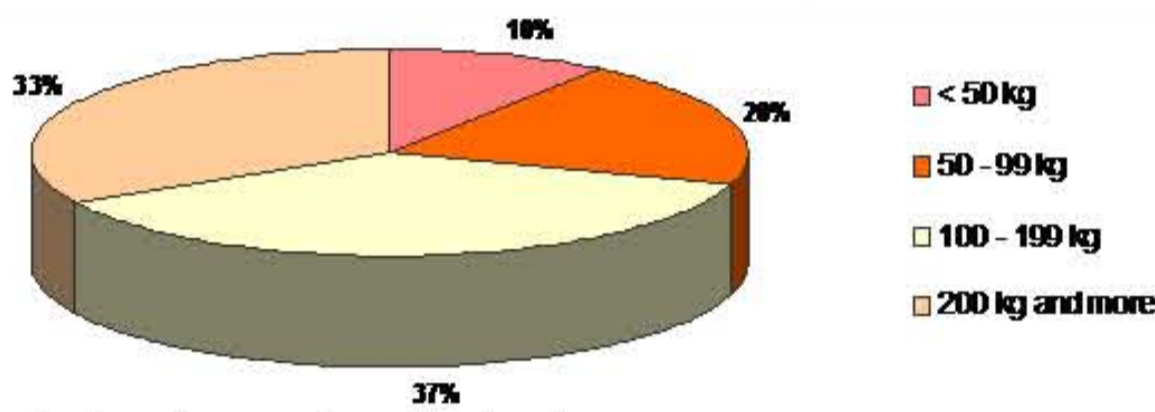

Selection of respondents

Household waste separating ratio

Estimated amount of waste produced by households per year

Base number: respondents who really separate municipal waste

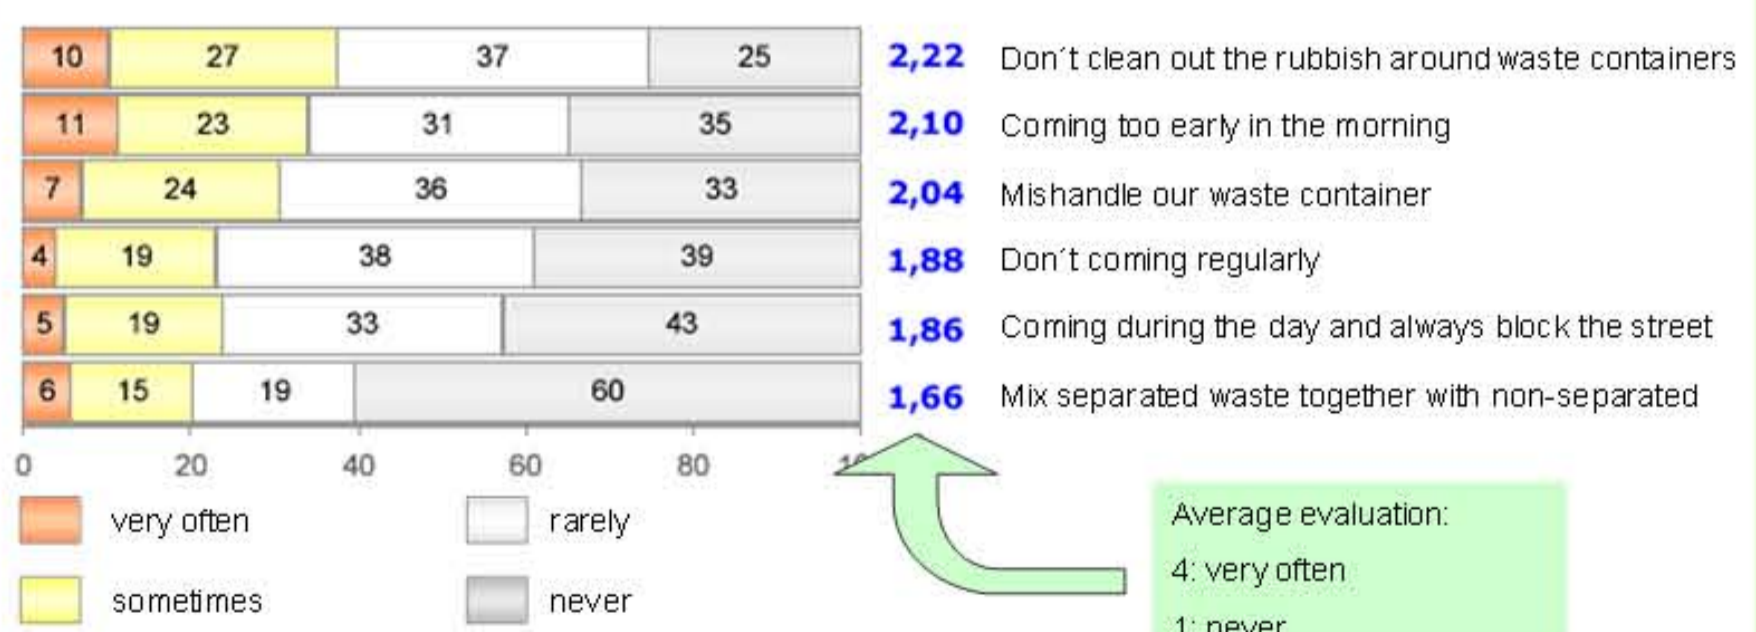

Estimated proportion of separated waste on total amount of produced waste

Evaluation of the satisfaction of respondents with the waste collection and disposal companies service

Frequency of selected phenomena

Importance of selected characteristics related to collection and transport of separated waste

